

Christmas Newsletter

Sunday 11th December 2016

Greetings all

Since our last Newsletter sent out in late October, we have been busy!

We have sung services at Balmain, Gordon and Dee Why, before our annual pilgrimage to Leura to begin the Advent season once again singing the much loved service of Advent Carols and Readings (see photo).

We are having a busy weekend, yesterday singing carols at West Pymble shops with Santa Claus in the morning before celebrating the Christmas season with our Pacific Islands friends at the home of our Patron, Sir Trevor Garland in the evening, complete with spectacular traditional dancing presented by talented young performers. Our group of TCSers then led community carol singing with Jim on the piano.

This evening we are again singing the traditional service of Lessons and Carols at St John's Balmain at 6pm.

It is not too late!!!

We are sending this brief reminder in case you would like to join us before Christmas.

This Monday 12th December at 5.15pm, we would love as many as possible of our loyal followers to join us for Evensong at St Andrew's Cathedral. The Rev Michael Deasey will be our organist. This is the first time we have sung at St Andrew's for some time, so we are really looking forward to this.

On Friday 16th December at 7.30pm we will be singing Lessons and Carols at St Peter's Cremorne before joining the St John's Gordon choirs for their service on 18th December at 7.30pm.

Finally, on Christmas Eve at 11pm at St John's Balmain we will be singing at Midnight Mass before taking a break in January.

As this is the season for giving, we hope you might consider TCS and the work we do in many and varied churches around our city. Any details are available on our website:

www.cathedralsingers.org.au.

May we take this opportunity to wish all our followers a happy and blessed Christmas with every good wish for the New Year.
